

Wisconsin Buyer Agreement Compliance Guide

Wisconsin agents use the state-approved WB-36 Buyer Agency/Tenant Representation Agreement, and under the 2024 nationwide rules it needs to be signed before you tour a home. Threshold puts the WB-36 workflow on your phone so you can complete and sign it in the field — no paper forms, no scrambling for a signature before a showing.

What changed for Wisconsin agents

Wisconsin uses standardized, state-approved WB forms — for buyer representation, that's the WB-36. Since August 17, 2024, agents working through an MLS need that agreement signed before showing a home. Threshold guides you through the WB-36 so it's ready the moment a buyer decides to work with you.

The Wisconsin form

In Wisconsin, buyer representation is documented with WB-36 Buyer Agency/Tenant Representation Agreement. Confirm the current version with your broker and the Wisconsin Department of Safety and Professional Services — form names and revisions change over time.

Every written buyer agreement should include

- A signature before touring. Agents working through an MLS need the agreement signed before showing a home — in person or virtually.
- A specific compensation amount. The figure must be objective and agreed with your buyer — not open-ended, and not more than you both set.
- Clear scope and dates. The scope of representation and the time period should be spelled out, using WB-36 Buyer Agency/Tenant Representation Agreement.
- The buyer's signature on file. Keep a signed copy you can produce for your brokerage or a compliance check.

A simple compliant workflow

1. Set expectations early. Explain buyer representation and why an agreement is required before you tour homes together.
2. Present the agreement. Walk the buyer through WB-36 Buyer Agency/Tenant Representation Agreement.
3. Agree compensation in writing. Enter a specific, objective amount you and the buyer accept.
4. Sign before the first showing. Capture buyer and agent signatures — then you're clear to tour.
5. Store and share. Keep the signed copy and export a PDF to your brokerage and buyer.
